

Canadian Pension Reform is coming... how will you handle it?

Toronto, ON – July 20th, 2010 – Ontario's new Bill 236 requires that advance notice of all plan amendments be given to all members, former members and retirees— regardless of whether or not they're affected by the amendments. The cost of a single mailing typically is in excess of $10 per member. If administrators haven't yet implemented web enabled communication, now is a good time to do so. CPAS v5 supports electronic communication between members and employers – now. With the average annual cost of member and employer communications about to skyrocket, why not ask what CPAS v5 can do for you?

With CPAS Systems pension administration software you can be assured of the flexibility to handle any legislative change currently proposed. We guarantee it! For more than 25 years we have been building world class pension systems right here in Canada...and selling those systems to clients around the globe. That's because our international clients know that if you can "get it right" in Canada – you can get it right anywhere!

CPAS v5 is a fully web-enabled system that readily handles all aspects of plan administration for defined benefit and defined contribution plans within the same application.
